1. This is the game of the missing words.

2. Read the following passages. Fill in the gaps using only one word in each space.
Halloween is celebrated in most of the occidental world during the night of the 31st of _________ (1). Its origins come from _________ (2) beliefs. During the XIX century this party was taken abroad to the United States by the _________ (3) emigrants, more concretely, around 1846. The traditional colours used in Halloween are _________ (4) because it’s the colour of the night and _________ (5), colour of the dawn. They are also the typical colours of the autumn and things such as _______ (6) and _________ (7). When ________ (8) conquered the Celtic territory they added two more celebrations: _________ (9) when they commemorated their dead people and _________ (10) the veneration to the fruit and trees goddess. The Halloween pumpkin or _________ (11) O’Lantern or the custom of asking for ________ (12) is a tradition.
(13) has been acquiring different (14) and customs from the different places and cultures as years go by. In Europe during the IX century, on the all saints day, poor Christians went begging, asking people for food. They asked for some sort of sweet (15), and in exchange, to thank those who helped them, they (16) for the souls of the dead members of the family that had given them the goods. That would help the dead reach the sky sooner. The (17) pumpkin with a lighten candle inside is the most famous (18) in Halloween. As Celts believed that (19) came back to earth, some people didn’t want to exit their homes in case they found them and, so they wouldn’t be (20), they wore (21) and costumes. They used to dress up with animal (22).