SUBJECT: "Ninth Annual European Student Competition in Ancient Greek Language and Literature".

The Ministry of Education, Lifelong Learning and Religious Affairs, and more specifically the Directorate of International Relations in Education and the Pedagogical Institute, in co-operation with the Society of Greek Philologists, the Pan-Hellenic Association of Teachers of Greek Language and Civilization, the Organization for the Promotion of the Greek Language, the Hellenic Language Heritage and the European Cultural Centre of Delphi, announce the Ninth (9th) Annual European Student Competition in Ancient Greek Language and Literature for the promotion of the classical studies among students of Upper Secondary Schools in Europe, where the Ancient Greek Language is taught.

The competition is under the auspices of the President of the Hellenic Republic.

AIMS

The Competition aims to:

- highlight the European dimension of Greek Antiquity and the importance of studying the ancient Greek literature for contemporary people,
- project the Ancient Greek Language as a vehicle and means of expressing humanitarian values and also as a fundamental component of contemporary European languages,

- reinforce classical studies at European schools.

Through the implementation of the competition, great benefit will arise for:

- the students who will participate, since they are going to broaden their knowledge of the Ancient Greek Language and enhance their interest in classical studies. Additionally, the students to be awarded will have the opportunity to come in contact with the Greek culture during their visit in Greece,
- the teachers, since they will have the opportunity to get their students engaged in classical studies, to get informed of the Ancient Greek curricula in Greek education and strengthen their ties with the Greek culture,
- the Greek official agents cooperating in the implementation of the competition, since they are going to contribute to the general debate about the instruction of the Ancient Greek Language and they will also enrich their experience in international collaboration,
- all the participating countries, since they will have the opportunity of further cooperation in promoting classical studies across Europe.

TARGET GROUPS

The Competition addresses to:

- a) students of the last two grades of Greek Lyceums (Upper Secondary Schools) in all European countries, except Greece and Cyprus.
- b) students of the last two grades of Upper Secondary Schools, which are equivalent to the last two grades of Greek Upper Secondary Schools (Lyceums), in all European countries, except Greece and Cyprus, as well as in Mexico and Argentina.

The participating countries for the school year 2009-2010 are all European countries, Mexico and Argentina.

THE SYLLABUS OF THE COMPETITION

The competition has a specific syllabus, which includes Ancient Greek texts in Attica dialect, prose and poetry.

The syllabus of the ninth (9th) competition is as follows:
