1. Verbo Like (gustar)

1.1. Formación

Para expresar gustos y preferencias se usa el verbo like (gustar):

Estas estructuras que vamos a aprender bien podrían responder a las preguntas:

What do you think about...?
¿Qué te parece...?
What is your opinion about...?
¿Qué opinas de...?

LIKE (gustar)
I like (me gusta)
You like
He/She/It likes
We like
You like
They like

Para poner este verbo en forma negativa (“no me gusta”), ponemos delante los verbos auxiliares don't / doesn't / didn't.

- I don't like Bob Marley.
- She doesn't like spaghetti.
- We didn't like school when we were young.

Para hacerlo interrogativo (¿“te gusta?”), se ponen delante los verbos auxiliares do / does / did y se mantiene el orden del sujeto y del verbo.

- Do you like Bob Marley?
- Does she like spaghetti?
- Did they like basketball?

Observa este recuadro y lo entenderás mejor:

Affirmative ME GUSTA	Negative NO ME GUSTA	Interrogative ¿TE GUSTA?
I like oranges	I don't like oranges	Do I like oranges?
You like oranges	You don't like oranges	Do you like oranges?
He/She/It likes oranges	He/She/It doesn't like oranges	Does he/she/it likes oranges?
We like oranges	We don't like oranges	Do we like oranges?
You like oranges	You don't like oranges	Do you like oranges?
They like oranges	They don't like oranges	Do they like oranges?

Para poner este verbo en tiempo pasado, al tratarse de un VERBO REGULAR, simplemente se añade -ed eliminando previamente la -e final muda del verbo y se traduce por "gustaba / gustó":

LIKE en pasado	LIKE en pasado interrogativo
I liked (Me gustaba/gustó)	Did I like? (¿Me gustaba/gustó?)
You liked	Did you like?
He/She/It liked	Did He/She/It like?
We liked	Did we like?
You liked	Did you like?
They liked	Did they like?

1.2. Uso

El verbo LIKE puede ir seguido de un complemento directo (nombre o pronombre) o bien de un verbo en -ing.

LIKE + COMPLEMENTO DIRECTO		LIKE + VERBO -ING
like + NOMBRE	like + PRONOMBRE	like + VERBO -ing
I like Bob Marley	= I like him	I like dancing.

a) LIKE + COMPLEMENTO DIRECTO:

El complemento directo puede estar formado indistintamente por un nombre (o sustantivo) o por un pronombre que lo reemplaza.

- I like bananas

- He doesn't like dogs
- Does she like football?

Actividad 1. Can you translate these sentences? Match the columns and you will have the answer.

A él le gusta el reloj caro	I like this dress
A ella no le gusta este sombrero	He likes the expensive watch
¿A él le gusta su pulsera?	I don't like those shoes
Me gusta este vestido	Does he like her bracelet?
¿Te gusta mi gorra nueva?	Do you like my new cap?
No me gustan esos zapatos	She doesn't like this hat

b) LIKE + VERBO EN -ing (V-ing):

Si el objeto directo es un verbo que denota una actividad este verbo va en la forma INFINITIVO + -ing.

ORTOGRAFÍA /SPELLING
DE LA FORMA VERBAL -ING:

-Normalmente añadimos -ing:

Ej.: go → going.

-Si acaba en -e, desaparece la -e y añadimos -ing:

Ej.: drive → driving.

-Si acaba en sílaba tónica y en consonante+vocal+consonante, duplicamos la última consonante y añadimos -ing.

Ej.: shop → shopping.

swim → swimming

Ejemplos:

- I like going swimming.
- She likes buying birthday cakes.
- We like going to the beach.
- Do you like dancing?
- I hate cooking.

Actividad 2. Write the -ing form of the following verbs.

1. Dance + -ing → dancing
2. Sit
3. Listen
4. Play
5. Run
6. Speak
7. Write
8. Stop
9. Eat
10. Ride

Actividad 3. Can you translate these sentences? Match the columns and you will have the answer.

| 1. Me gusta ir al cine | I like going to the cinema |
| 2. A ella le gusta comprar regalos | Do you like going to the sales? |
| 3. A ti no te gusta probarte ropa | He doesn't like choosing |
| 4. A él no le gusta elegir. | Does he like receiving gifts? |
| 5. ¿Le gusta recibir regalos? | She likes buying presents |
| 6. ¿Te gusta ir de rebajas? | You don't like trying on clothes |

2. Like / Love / Hate

Otros verbos que expresan preferencias y se construyen igual que like son love (amar personas / encantar cosas) y hate (odiar/ detestar).

2.1. Formación

LIKE	LOVE	HATE
I like	I love	I hate
You like	You love	You hate
He/She/ It likes	He/She/It loves	He/She/It hates
We like	We love	We hate
You like	You love	You hate
They like	They love	They hate

APRENDE

Las siguientes preguntas y respuestas nos sirven para hablar de lo que nos gusta o no nos gusta:

Do you like classical music? I love it. (Me encanta).

I like it very much. (Me gusta mucho).

I don't like it very much. (No me gusta mucho).

I hate it. (Lo odio).

Who is your favourite singer? My favourite singer is Bob Marley (¿Quién es tu cantante preferido?).

What is your favourite food? My favourite food is spaghetti. (¿Cuál es tu comida favorita?).

Para poner estos verbos en forma negativa, ponemos delante los verbos auxiliares don't / doesn't / didn't.

I don't hate vegetables (No detesto las verduras).

She doesn't love classical music (No le encanta la música clásica).

Para hacerlo interrogativo, se ponen delante los verbos auxiliares do / does / did y se mantiene el orden del sujeto y del verbo.

Do you love Bob Marley? (¿Te encanta Bob Marley?).

Did she hate spaghetti? (¿Detestaba los espaguetis?).

Para poner estos verbos en tiempo pasado, al tratarse de VERBOS REGULARES, simplemente se añade -ed, eliminando previamente la -e final muda del verbo:

LOVE en pasado	HATE en pasado
I loved	I hated
You loved	You hated
He/She/It loved	He/She/It hated
We loved	We hated
You loved	You hated
They loved	They hated

Actividad 4. Match the sentences and the pictures.

3. Comparación entre Like / Would Like

Presentamos ahora otra construcción diferente pero a menudo confundida con el verbo LIKE ya que se forma a partir de éste:

would like

Es la forma condicional de LIKE y se suele traducir como “me gustaría” o “querría”.

Ejemplos:

- I would like to swim in the sea Me gustaría bañarme en el mar.
- They would like to play a game Les gustaría jugar un partido.

Siempre va seguido de la construcción TO + VERBO EN INFINITIVO

Ejemplos:

- I would like to have a soda Me gustaría tomarme un refresco.
- She would like to watch that concert Le gustaría ver ese concierto.

3.1. Formación de WOULD LIKE

Siempre poniendo el verbo auxiliar WOULD (normalmente utilizado para construcciones condicionales) delante del verbo LIKE:

Para poner estos verbos en forma negativa (“no me gustaría”), añadimos NOT al verbo auxiliar wouldn't / would not (se pueden emplear indistintamente).

- I wouldn't like to study tonight No me gustaría estudiar esta noche.
- She would not like to eat meat Le gustaría no comer carne.

Para hacer esta construcción interrogativa, se ponen delante el verbo auxiliar would y se mantiene el orden del sujeto y del verbo.

- Would you like to have a drink? ¿Te gustaría tomar algo?

APRENDE

La forma interrogativa WOULD YOU LIKE TO... se usa para ofrecer o invitar y adquiere el significado de "Te apetecería...?/Te apetecería...?":
Would you like to dance?
Would you like to come to my party?

Affirmative ME GUSTARÍA	Negative NO ME GUSTARÍA	Interrogative ¿TE GUSTARÍA?
I would like	I wouldn't like	Would I like?
You would like	You wouldn't like	Would you like?
He/She/ It would like	He/She/ It wouldn't like	Would he/she/it like?
We would like	We wouldn't like	Would we like?
You would like	You wouldn't like	Would you like?
They would like	They wouldn't like	Would they like?

Affirmative FORMA CORTA
I'd like
You'd like
He'd/She'd like
We'd like
You'd like
They'd like

3.2. Diferencias entre like y would like

LIKE

Forma → like + Verbo en -ing

Significado → gustar (en sentido general)

Respuesta corta → Do you like reading? Yes, I do / No, I don't.

¿Te gusta leer? Sí / No.

WOULD LIKE

Forma → would like + to + Verbo en infinitivo

Significado → gustaría, querría, apetece (algo concreto)

Respuesta corta → Would you like to have a drink?

Yes, I would / No, I wouldn't.

¿Te apetece / te gustaría tomar algo? Sí/No.

Actividad 6. Complete with would like or like.

1. He (negative) watching TV.
2. you to sleep in my house next Saturday?
3. you watching horror films? I hate them.
4. They to buy a house with a garden.

- Who's your favourite football player?

Para responder, utiliza estas otras:

- My favourite sport is football.
- I like football best.
- I like football most.
- My favourite football players are Ronaldo and Messi.

Si hablamos de preferencias, se utiliza básicamente el verbo PREFER cuya estructura sería:

-Prefer + nombre:

- I prefer tea.
- I prefer orange juice.

-Prefer + to + verbo en infinitive:

- I prefer to go to the cinema.
- I prefer to go to the beach.

Para preguntar:

- Which do you prefer tea or coffee?
- Which do you prefer drinking science or physics?
- Which do you prefer to drink juice or mineral water?
(Notice: prefer to + present simple)

- Would you rather eat a cake or a fruit?

Para responder:

- I prefer baseball.
- I prefer to drink juice.
- If I had a choice, I would eat a sandwich.
- A cup of coffee would be good.

5. Pronunciación / Comunicación

5.1. Mensajes cortos de texto

Hoy en día el teléfono móvil se ha convertido en una herramienta de uso cotidiano a todos los niveles de la sociedad: nos facilita la vida, al poder contactar en cualquier momento con nuestra familia, amigos o compañeros de trabajo.

Además de las llamadas, la telefonía móvil nos permite a través de los mensajes de texto, avisar a alguien de un determinado acontecimiento sin necesidad de realizar una llamada. Para ello, debido a la urgencia del momento y para que exista más espacio útil para comunicar lo que queremos, tendemos a abreviar las palabras ¡¡Sin llegar al punto que nos resulten indescifrables a nosotros mismos!!

Esto se hace en tanto en español como en inglés, por lo que estimamos interesante ofrecerte un resumen de las abreviaturas más habituales que se hacen en inglés.

Abreviatura	Palabra real
NP	no problem
PLS	please
UR	You are
CU	see you
2U	to you
ASAP	as soon as possible
AML	all my love
2NITE	tonight
THX	thanks
