

Teaching Literacy at the end of the Infant stage and the beginning of the Primary stage.

CEIP MIRÓBRIGA

19/9/19

Rosario García Peramato

Teaching Literacy at the end of the Infant stage and the beginning of the Primary stage.

- LITERACY:
 - Reading and writing at a level for communication, which implies understanding and communicating ideas in a literate society.

Teaching Literacy at the end of the Infant stage and the beginning of the Primary stage.

- LITERACY:
 - Involves the 4 skills of language:
 - Listening
 - Speaking
 - Reading
 - Writing

Teaching Literacy at the end of the Infant stage and the beginning of the Primary stage.

- LITERACY:
 - Reading subskills:
 - Phonemic Awareness
 - Decoding
 - Fluency
 - Comprehension and Vocabulary.
 - Students need to master these in order to become proficient readers.

Teaching Literacy at the end of the Infant stage and the beginning of the Primary stage.

READING

5 años	1° de Primaria
PHONEMIC AWARENESS	PHONEMIC AWARENESS
DECODING (sounds, words)	DECODING (sounds, words, phrases, sentences, shorts texts)
	COMPREHENSION AND VOCABULARY
	FLUENCY

WRITING

5 años	1° de Primaria
TRACE (draw, copy, rewrite, follow the line, etc.)	TRACE
WRITE	WRITE (copy, write, produce)

La enseñanza de Literacy en el final de la etapa de Infantil y el comienzo de Primaria

- 5 AÑOS:
 - Morning routines:
 - Calendar
 - JOLLY PHONICS:
 - Timing
 - Topics:
 - Follow the trail

Teaching Literacy at the end of the Infant stage and the beginning of the Primary stage.

- 1° Primaria:
 - Morning routines:
 - Calendar
 - Literacy development:
 - Daily Oral Language
 - Read and Write Inc.
 - Unit development:
 - Table of contents (match with Social and Natural)