SPOT TV

The image shows three overlapping worksheets from iSpot.tv. Each worksheet has a header with 'iSpot.tv' and a logo. Below the header, there are two rows of input fields: 'Name: _____' and 'Title: _____'. The first worksheet on the left has four questions with corresponding lines for answers: 'What are they selling?', 'Do you like the product?', 'Who are the main characters?', and 'How much do you think the product costs?'. The second worksheet in the middle is partially obscured and shows only the 'Name' and 'Title' fields. The third worksheet on the right is also partially obscured and shows only the 'Name' and 'Title' fields. A green play button icon is visible in the background between the worksheets.
